

Training With We Are The Ones

We Are The Ones is a versatile short film that can be used in any environment and is applicable to a wide audience.

It is about:

Being Responsible

Rededication

Taking Action

Finding Opportunities

Affirming our Efforts

Building a Future

Uses

Meeting Opener

Trainers can begin any meeting or conference with We Are The Ones. It encourages participants to think about their ability to make a difference and create positive change. When used as a meeting opener, participants will be motivated to achieve their goals.

Meeting Closer

We Are The Ones can also be used to conclude any session. The powerful message serves as a call to action. Viewers will reflect on the message from the program and incorporate it with what they learned.

Training Session

We Are The Ones can also be used as its own half-hour or hour training session. Show the short film to the group and go through the training guide, asking them the accompanying questions. You can also show the PowerPoint™ presentation to conclude the session.

Versions

The sale copies of We Are The Ones contains three different versions: The original, a version with graphic text, and a version without graphics or voice over (music only). This makes the program more versatile for your training session.